Additional page to the notice of place of residence

 If a person does not have an Estonian personal identification code, it will be created for him/her by the local government based on the data from his/her identity and citizenship document, and it is not necessary to submit this data on an additional page.*

 If necessary, the data from the identity and citizenship document may be entered on an additional page if the notice of place of residence is completed before submitting it to the local government or if it simplifies the submission of data for all persons whose residential address is being changed at once.*

 Please complete in block letters.*

Take the number of the person from Section 3 of the notice of place of residence.
